

The Imaging Society of Japan copyright rubric

Enact April 1, 2007

The handling about the copyright of the work to publicize as here said institute is set forth the Imaging Society of Japan (it is said with this institute as follows) supports further healthy development of an image technology and the image pertinent art, and to give service to meet a member and social expectation.

It acts as this institute having assign copyright of the work in publicizing article widely without damaging claim of the author in a principle substantially.

[Purpose]

(1)

This rubric sets forth the handling of the copyright of owner of copyright about (original papers contributed to published matter of published by this institute, study advance sheets, the report such as short notebooks, general remarks, a think piece, technical data and technology explanation materials such as technology workshop contributed to proceedings such as technical conference, a meeting for the study, a symposium, international conference contributed to this institute and this institute are included, and it is said with article as follows.) such as article contributed to this institute and the contributor (it is said with author as follows).

[Ascription of the copyright]

(2)

The contributor assigns copyright (all claim prescribed from Japan Copyright Law Article 21 by Copyright Law Article 26 and Copyright Law Article 27 and Article 28) about the article to contribute to this institute to this institute gratis when last manuscript was contributed to this institute.

(2-2)

If contents of the said work are concerned with the charge literary works of the agencies where the author belongs to as well as an author person and cannot assign copyright because there is the special circumstance including the case that approval of the affiliation is not got about ascription of the copyright and the case that it is not obtained consent of all the collaboration author of joint works, it is decided after discussion between this institute with author about handling of the copyright.

(2-3)

If it is decided that article contributed to this institute is not published by published matter of this institute, the copyright such as the said article shall be returned from this institute by author.

(2-4)

The moral right belongs to author.

Provided, however, about the next item about public announcements right and identity maintenance right, as for the author, this institute and this institute shall not use moral right for a person granting a utilization of the said work.

- (1) Alteration with translation and this
- (2) Alteration with the electronic distribution
- (3) Utilization that only abstract is extracted
- (4) Alteration to assume polychromatic manuscript the single color printing
- (5) Alteration with the technical safeguard to take in work to prevent abuse of the work

[Claim special stipulation with the author]

(3)

If author such as the article that this institute has copyright uses all or part such as the article of one's own book in form such as duplication, translation, the adaptation, the author reports to this institute in writing in advance and shall specify a source to said work or the duplication.

Provided, however, this institute shall not disturb request for reinvestigation or utilization in this as far as it is used in terms and conditions to correspond to next item.

(3-2)

- (1) If, in article, author contributes the report such as short notebooks, technical conference proceedings, meeting for the study proceedings, symposium proceedings, and international conference proceedings to this institute or other institute as last works of the studies study advance sheets
- (2) If a contribution to texts to use for a meeting of the education purpose that this society sponsors is reused non-for profit

(3) If it is the utilization that is accepted as citation after having specified the source

(4) If a part is used as a teaching material and examination questions in a school, research institution

(5) If the utilization permission terms and conditions that this society establishes separately are met

(3-3)

In article, the author cannot contribute it to other institute about the thing which this society decides the record to an article magazine after review, and received last manuscript and the bulletin report.

[Utilization permission to the third party]

(4)

From the third party, there is solicitation of the permission about duplication such as the article, translation, adaptation, the utilization with the electronic conformation; required in a main meeting; when admit that and do not hurt profit of the author unfairly, in this institute, can grant utilizations such as the article to the said third party.

(4-2) this institute gets approval of the board of governors for Corp. Japan duplication right center, the copyright central control system of Copyright Clearance Center and others about copyright such as the article, and can entrust you with execution of right of the utilization permission.

(4-3)

This institute notifies so author of the permission for the for-profit published matter.

(4-4) if this society receives payment of the consideration by utilization permission of this section for the third party, meet transfer, purpose of this institute for this institute accounting, and validly utilize it.

(4-5)

The case except the above obeys the utilization permission terms and conditions that this society establishes separately.

[Other handling]

(5)

If there is a decision otherwise about copyright such as article contributed to other cosponsor ship practice with the institute, a said decision gives priority to it over this rubric and is applied.

(6)

If there is piracy copyright infringement (or doubt of the infringement) by the third party for the article that this institute has copyright, this institute and author discuss it about correspondence and shall plan settlement.

(6-2)

If article contributed to this institute causes copyright or other infringement on right of the third party, calumny or other disputes, author such as the said article takes responsibility for all.

[Vesting date]

(7)

This rubric shall remain in effect from April 1, 2007.

In addition, it shall be handled according to this rubric unless there is an offer otherwise from author about the copyright such as article contributed before April 1, 2007, and this institute admitted that there is just causes about a said offer.

(7-2)

This rubric can be reorganized with approval in the board of governors by initiative of the Imaging Society of Japan commissioner.

[Addition]

With the (a-1) copyright, a reproduction right (Article 21), performing rights and performing rights (Article 22), the presentation of movie right (2 of Article 22), (Article 23) such as the public transmission right, the oral statement right (Article 24), the exhibit right (Article 25), a distribution right (Article 26), a right of transfer (2 of Article 26), a right of lending (3 of Article 26), translation right, (Article 27) such as the adaptation right, the claim (Article 28) of the original author about the utilization of derivative works are said.