1. Introduction

This document file is the template for preparing the manuscript of [PPIC '08]. The manuscript should be formatted using the modified style provided in this template document, i.e., Paper Title, Author Name(s), affiliation, Abstract, Section Title, Subsection Title, body, Figure and Table, Figure Caption, References, etc. in a 2 column format on A4-size paper.

2. Document Specs

Using A4-size papers, set all margins (left, right, top, and bottom) to 2.00 cm. Manuscripts should be a maximum of 4 pages; longer papers will be returned for revision. Please do not place page numbers in your manuscript.

3. Composition of the Manuscript

On the top of the first page, paper title and information for author(s) should be written in one column format. And continuously, a brief abstract of your research should be written with around 100 words. After this section, body part of your manuscript with section title and/or subsection title should be written in 2 column format. Furthermore, your mailing address and e-mail address will be written in footnote region on the bottom of the first page.

4. About Style

Each kind of paragraph in the manuscript (Paper Title, Author Name(s), affiliation, Abstract, Section Title, Subsection Title, body, Figure and Table, Figure Caption, References, etc.) can be formatted using the modified style in this template file. In order to confirm the composition of each style, you may open the [style (Word 95, 97, or 2000)] or the [style and formatting (for Word 2002 or Word 2003)] panel from [main menu], [format].

4-1. Details of each modified style

Details of each style were briefly summarized in Table 1. You use styles to format the paragraphs in your document. So you would use the "PPIC 1.1 Paper Title" style for the title of your manuscript, "PPIC 6 body" style for body text, etc.
